Preparation

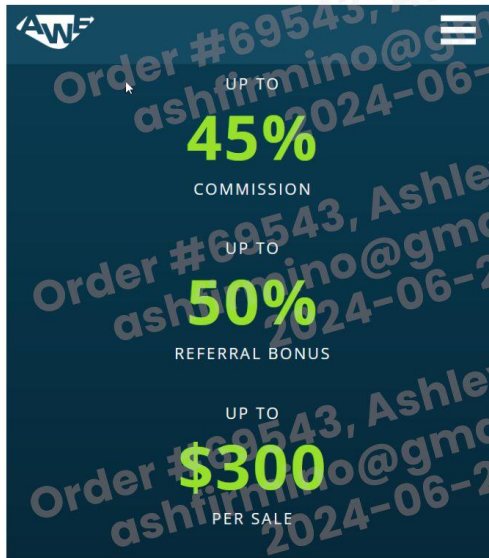

Considering that adult webcams have been expanding for years, it's logical to promote those affiliate programs. So we will use big companies from this field as affiliate networks.

Most of the affiliate networks do not require having a website, if they ask you so, you will write that you are planning white labeling and promotion through paid traffic such as Trafficjunky and Exoclick.

The networks I recommend are the following

The screenshot shows the Cambuilder website interface. At the top left is the Cambuilder logo. Below it, there are two promotional cards. The first card features a large '35%' followed by 'LIFETIME REVENUE SHARE'. Below this, it says 'We pride ourselves on the highest conversion rates in the industry. You're guaranteed 35% for life on all spending users! If you're in it for the long run, this is your best choice.' The second card has a red 'NEW' tag at the top. It displays '$75 PER SPENDER + 30% LIFETIME REVENUE SHARE'. Below this, it says 'Enjoy the best of both worlds. Get $75 per unique spender. In addition, we'll pay 30% revenue share once your revenue share revenue exceeds'.

We want users to see as much models as they can on a single page. Just like they see when they go to favorite porn tube website.

It's easy to find your direct affiliate link. I will use AWEmpire to explain how.

Click "Promo Tools"

Click "Link Code"

GENERATE

In general, you don't need a website. It's enough to do a domain redirect. To begin with, you can also use a free domain from Freenom.com, although I suggest buying a .com domain related to webcams once you've made first dollars.

I recommend doing Revshare programs. On the long run, you will make much more money with Revshare than with Per Sale program. But that's on you generally to decide.

Sometimes it may take some time to see bigger conversions on Revshare, with Per Sale programs they come much sooner.

You will have to redirect your domain to direct affiliate link. So when users enters your domain he will be redirected to your affiliate link.

At Freenom domain redirecting is called URL forwarding, that the same thing.

Note, sometimes Freenom is unavailable for domain registrations but that's mostly temporary.

To set up URL forwarding for your domain:

- Go to My Domains:
<https://my.freenom.com/clientarea.php?action=domains>
- Click on Manage Domain
- Click on Management Tools
- Click on URL Forwarding
- Enter your affiliate link in the URL Forwarding box.
- Press Set URL
- DONE!

Now when we have our domain and redirect ready, we can start working on the main part of this method.

The method

I have always believed the living word more than some kind of advertisement online. So, I believe it more when, for example, I read a user's text on a forum that Lisa Ann 😊 retired than if I saw it on a banner.

As you know, pon tube sites are now the mainstay in the adult industry. They have millions of traffic every day.

The essence of this method is that we will use the text to help fans of adult content with specific thing.

Have you ever seen, and I'm sure you have, that under the clip (on tube sites) people post comments asking "What's the name of this girl?" Or something similar.

This often happens with clips where there are no actors' names in the title.

Or the question "Where can I find more of her?"

These people are really interested in more material from a certain pornstar. And how would it be if those same people found out that pornstar has her own webcam show? Even better information for viewers.

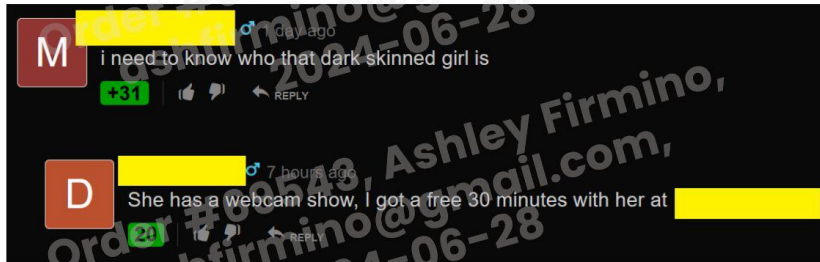

How to use it? Very simple. We will create an account on the tube site and simply reply, for example "She has a webcam show, I got a free 30 minutes with her at - your domain (affiliate link)".

BUY OR SELL EARNING METHODS

As you can see, it's very simple. Users get information where they can find the name of a pornstar they are looking for, they get her new content, and the best they get free minutes!

Does this work? Absolutely!

There is a possibility that he will find the actress he is looking for on our affiliate site, but even if he does not find her, certain users see interesting content and decide to subscribe. That's where we make money.

I honestly don't know if this specific pornstar has her show or content on a certain webcam platform I promote... but it doesn't matter, users will subscribe if they like it, otherwise they will leave. We do not force them to do anything.

The work

So, first of all, you should make a list of websites where you will leave comments. These are porn tube sites, various popular forums, blogs.

I made a list of some but I'm not going to share it with you. Sorry.

You see, I don't want us all to work on the same sites, I don't want the method to become saturated because of that. There are many sites out there and we can all make good money.

You will easily make your list. I will give you recommendations on what to pay attention to.

- You need medium to small size tube sites.
- Sites related to amateur and homemade content are doing well.
- Subniche-related sites are doing well, for example foot fetish or BDSM, big tits...
- A good index of porn sites is Theporndude
- Comments on social networks such as Twitter are doing well

It's very important that this doesn't go so well with big sites like Porntube. Xhamster and other giants because the moderators delete the links (you may try tough). But it performs very well with smaller and medium sized sites as stated above.

Always post comments on clips that are on the front page or on the recently added clips. They are actually viral, they are currently viewed by the largest number of users.

Posting comments on the most viewed clips is not a good idea because these are the clips that generally have the highest number of views but do not have views at a given moment, they are not viral.

Scale

This scales easily. Go to Fiverr and hire a virtual assistant to post comments for you. You just send them texts for comments and a list of sites where they should do the work.

The method can be easily automated using the iMacros script that would post the comments for you. I haven't tried this yet, but once I get around to it, you'll get an update with instructions.

Potential problems and solutions

They may happen, but they won't cause you any real problems with your earnings.

It may happen that the moderators of the tube site delete comments or ban you. Just create a new account and continue working.

I have been doing this method for a long time, if the administrator of the tube site reports you to affiliate network, just remove that site from the list. I always get earnings from the network, every dollar earned.

They are ok with this kind of traffic, they just don't want to announce it publicly.

What can happen is that the moderator of the tube site censors your domain in the comment, so when you leave a comment instead of the text it says  or the comment doesn't appear at all. In order not to buy a new domain (although you can), use Unicode characters.

They look like this.

On this site you can convert the font of your domain to Unicode font.

<https://texteditor.com/font-converter/>

Moderators cannot censor Unicode.

That's it. As you can see it's really easy to make money with Redhat Workshop.
